In my opinion this entire prosecution has been a sham and instigated by the wealthy, yet inept, second-tier Silicon Valley billionaires (Oracle, Sun, et.al.). As a user of Microsoft products (home and office) and Oracle Financial products (office), I can unequivocally state that Microsoft products tend to work as promised with a fairly high degree of reliability, whereas Oracle Financial products are complex, poorly designed, overpriced, and therefore, a rip-off. I suggest you contact any of the many Oracle CRP users and obtain their frank and honest reactions. The DoJ has been prosecuting the WRONG company.
